

BEDP
Friday January 24, 2014
Study Session
7:30 – 9:00 a.m.
Burien City Hall
400 SW 152nd Street, 3rd Floor
Miller Creek Conference Room

Present: Paul Smith, Matt Wendland, Carmen Goers, Dan Mathews, Mark Minium, Suzanne Greive, Rick Onyshko, Carol Kolson, Judy Covert

City Staff: Carol Allread, Dan Trimble

Guest: Nancy Tosta

Unexcused Absent: Rodolfo Hernandez McIntyre, Justin West

Excused Absent: Jay Hasbrouck, Dean Anderson, Lindsay White

Call to Order 7:30 a.m.

Economic Development Strategic Plan – Review and possible recommendation:

Dan Trimble – City has ownership of the intellectual property of the plan.

Rick Onyshko – We should forward on the summary to the Planning Commission.

Nancy Tosta – Suggests an economic forum to develop a work plan with input from the community and advisory panels.

Nancy Tosta – Labor force should be labeled ‘Education and Labor Force’. Add the Puget Sound Skills Center.

Nancy Tosta – The plan needs to distinguish between the buildable land supply and the city owned property.

Motion by Mark Minium to approve edits/amendments to the plan. The motion was seconded by Judy Covert, motion carries with unanimous approval.

Motion by Rick Onyshko to recommend Economic Development Strategic Plan to the council. The motion was seconded by Dan Mathews, motion carries with unanimous approval.

Upcoming Temporary Sign Code Work Group:

BEDP is invited to advise on code.

Court case in Redmond – discrimination based on content of the signs. Rules and regulations on codes were no longer enforceable. Limited to the temporary sign code portion.

Mark Minium – would like to participate on the committee.

Dan Mathews – Discover Burien could involve Clean Sweep as a feedback device.

2014 Study Session Topics/Guest Speakers:

Seattle King County Economic Development Council

Small Business Development Center

Auburn Economic Development Manager

Highline School Superintendent

Hospitals

Police and public safety

Parking and transportation

Discussion: how do we address homeless youth in our community?

Round the Table:

Nancy Tosta – Nancy is hosting coffee chats with citizens. Retreat update – focus on economic development and improving the image of Burien. Forty-seven City Manager candidates. Feb 28 candidate reception will provide an opportunity to interact with the candidates.

Meeting adjourned 9:07 a.m.